

June 2, 2008

Students to receive scholarships

The School-to-Careers Partnership of Broome and Tioga Counties will award $3,000 in scholarships at the 11th annual Partnership for Excellence Recognition Event 3 p.m. Thursday at the Endwell Greens Banquet Center in Endwell.

Christie Ziegler, of Union-Endicott High School, received a $500 Career Development Scholarship. She is a youth apprentice at Willow Point Nursing Home and will attend Siena College/Albany Medical College.

Sarah Dodd, Windsor High School, received a $1,000 Youth Apprentice Scholarship for pursuing a career directly related to her work-based learning experience at Lourdes Hospital. She will attend Binghamton University's Decker School of Nursing.

Nicholas Alfano, Union-Endicott High School and youth apprentice at Endwell Greens Golf Club; Ryan Fetterman, Greene High School and youth apprentice at The Raymond Corporation; and Alissa Strong, Seton Catholic Central High School and youth apprentice at Progressive Dental, each received $500 Youth Apprentice scholarships